SESSION

May Meeting Highlights

- Approved request from Bluffton Lions Club to have a registration and communication station under a small awning in the church lawn facing Main Street during the afternoon and evening of Friday, June 16 for the Festival of Wheels.
- Looking for replacement for Laura Irwin (Youth Group and Children's Church) who is graduating this year. Brooklyn Phillips (Children's Church) will return in September – she will be a junior at Bluffton University. English Lutheran Church is hosting community Vacation Bible School July 16-20. We are responsible for refreshments – recruiting volunteers. Looking for someone to lead Young Youth Formation Class and Adult Faith Formation – a monthly rotation is a possibility. The Young Youth Faith Formation class and Children's Church started summer break at the end of May.
- Annual church review/audit for 2022 was completed by Ohio Northern University accounting students (Auditing class). Final report indicated that “processes for cash receipts, cash disbursements, and checking account reconciliations appeared adequate and were conducted with sufficient consideration of sound internal control practices”.
- Approved purchasing digital piano – keyboard/case from Sweetwater ($2,200 for keyboard with case additional – both to come from Memorial Funds) to be used for outside worship/church activities in gazebo. Keyboard which was used previously belonged to Karol Schilling.

If you donate money, please submit a check (memo: LRM) to the church office or give online (www.blufftonpc.org/give). Thanks!

Pentecost Offering

A gift to the Pentecost Offering helps the church encourage, develop, and support its young people, and address the needs of at-risk children. 40% of the Pentecost offering will be used locally to make an impact in the lives of young people; this year's portion will go to Campus Life in Bluffton. The remaining 60% is used to support children-at-risk, youth, and young adults through ministries of the Presbyterian Mission Agency.

To support this work, send a check to the church office or give online:

Elder Victim Ministry

Since the beginning of the year, Elder Victim Ministry has worked with 70 victims of violence (elder abuse, assault, domestic violence, violation of a protection order, menacing, threats). Surveys reflect that in one year's time, one in 10 older adults become victims of elder abuse. Experts estimate that elder abuse is significantly underreported. So, who is at risk? Women, people who are divorced or separated, people of color and those in poor health. Also, people living with a low income are more likely to be physically or psychologically abused. Elders with a higher income are more likely to be financially exploited.

How can we be protected from elder abuse? Social support! Crime Victim Services believes communities thrive when all members prevail over trauma and support one another. Be more intentional with your acquaintances and relationships. Commit to participating in more ongoing social networks. Connecting regularly helps us all not only show care for our older neighbors but also to monitor their well-being.

Elder Victim Ministry, a program of Crime Victim Services, offers confidential and free services. We advocate for crime survivors throughout their healing journey. Contact Elysia Bush for concerns or if you are interested in volunteering: 877-867-7273 or text 419-302-2857.

World Elder Abuse Awareness Day, June 15

On Thursday, June 15, we're asked to 'Build Strong Support for Elders' on World Elder Abuse Awareness Day. Experts estimate that elder abuse is significantly underreported by victims and community members alike. Is elder abuse an "invisible problem?" Ageism in our society factors in here.

Already feeling marginalized and undervalued due to ageism, elders sometimes become reluctant to report abuse. Hesitancy to share abuse incidents can also be due to embarrassment, shame, or fear of retaliation. If the abuser is a family member, the elder often doesn't want them getting in trouble.

What is elder abuse? It's mistreatment of a person aged 60 and older including: isolation, intentional harm, neglect, self-neglect, intimidation, sexual violence, threats, under or over medicating, ridicule, financial exploitation, and fraud. One sign it's elder abuse: fear of a family member or care provider.

Who can report elder abuse? Anyone at any age can report their concerns to Adult Protective Services through their Sheriff's Office. This can be anonymous. Who is obligated by law to report elder abuse? Here's a partial list: financial institution, legal, medical, and mental health practitioners and their employees, EMTs, fire fighters, social workers, psychologists, clergy, humane society workers, publicly owned building employees, real estate agents, notaries, and senior services workers.

Elder Victim Ministry, a program of Crime Victim Services, offers confidential and free services. We advocate for crime survivors throughout their healing journey. Contact Elysia Bush for concerns or if you are interested in volunteering: 877-867-7273 or text 419-302-2857.

Thank You

Thank you for the gift card and flowers for Administrative Assistant Day.

Cathy

Thank you so much for your generous gift, but more importantly thank you for inviting and welcoming me into your community for the past year and a half. I really appreciate everything you have done for me! Last week I accepted an elementary music teacher position at Lynchburg Clay Elementary in Lynchburg, OH. This is where my sister, Anna, student-taught last semester and is near Wilmington college. I will be moving down there upon driving back from Colorado. I'm excited, but nervous, for this new chapter. I'll be praying for you! And occasionally come to a worship service. Who knows, maybe my twin sister will find a teaching job nearby ☺.

Scholarship News from Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.)

Thanks to the recent receipt of a $20 million bequest, Austin College is providing scholarships which cover full tuition for any student on the membership roll of a Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) congregation. Austin College was founded in 1849, currently has 1,228 students, and is located on a 100-acre campus in the small city of Sherman, Texas (not too far from Dallas). Austin College's mascot is the Kangaroo! For additional information, visit AustinCollege.edu

Fighting Hunger with Cents-Ability

The second Sunday of the month is the Cents-ability collection. The youth will be participating in the collection and making it a "noisy Sunday". Youth of the church will be walking around the sanctuary with cans, shaking them and collecting from the congregation! Make sure to bring your spare change to help make this as noisy as possible!!

WORSHIP COMMITTEE

Volunteers needed to help pass the offering plates.

We need three volunteers for each Sunday worship service to serve as offering plate ushers during the introduction to the Closing Hymn: one usher on each outer aisle and one in the middle aisle. If you can help, please see Lynda Best

Volunteers needed to help with PowerPoint slides

We are looking for someone to help one Sunday a month with clicking through PowerPoint slides during the Worship Service. Please see Lynda Best if you are interested.

Please feel free to sit in the gazebo!

To reserve for an event, call BPC.

Our most popular program is Community Markets rebates, which is a super easy way of supporting both BPC and our local grocery store! Simply drop your Community Markets receipts in the basket attached to the bulletin board by the church office or mail them to the church – no user account, loyalty card, or app required! We receive a 1% rebate. Even small receipts are worth turning in; the combined total adds up.

Many thanks and appreciation to Darlene Hey who handles this ministry for us! Darlene reminds us to please hand in whole receipts. Please do not cut off the bottoms of your receipts because only whole receipts qualify.

GREAT IS THY FAITHFULNESS,
Great is thy faithfulness
Morning by morning
NEW MERCIES I SEE.
All I have needed
Thy hand hath provided.
GREAT IS THY FAITHFULNESS,
Lord, unto me!
