A Word from the departing Pastor:

“No more dreadful driving back and forth”

Oh, what a wonderful morning. It was delightful. It was fun (Sound off! Mr. Sycks). It was musical (thank you for the stretto, Dave and Jane) whether “the flock was in the field” or not (good group demise!). But it was heartfelt. It was fun and in all moments it was sacred.

“Dave had hair before we did the hiring.”

It was Sacred. In the end, Sunday, the 11th was us. It was our life together. It was the journey in God which we shared. And so it was in every way a gift from God. Because our time together was a gift.

So I will take my treasure which is memories and friendships, and blessings received, and go to what is next. And so I wish for you: Go with God.

And what does the Lord require of you? But to do justice, love kindness and walk humbly with God.
(Micah 6)

And now a word from the departing Temporary Pastor:

Just to share a story and a truth. I had had musicians come and go in my life. But in 1994 something profound happened. The organist was a profound pianist because she wasn't only a pianist she was a storyteller. She made the keyboard sing a story. We began to play piano 4 hands. And at the same time the church spontaneously generated a band/orchestra.

And then my interim was over, and I went to the next church – what was I to do? My music partner was gone. I could not generate a band/orchestra. But I did find a new and differently abled musician to work with. Then I went to Indiana in an installed position, and I had a choir of 5 and no large voices. But what blend. And they read. And they dared.

Each time I went somewhere, God sent gifts. But I could only enjoy the gifts if I would give up clutching to what was the high point of what went before. If I tried to recreate the past I would crash and burn. Only if I embraced what was next, what was new, could I find the true gift which God gave for the next time. It wasn't the most comfortable of lessons. But it was a truth from God.

And so I bid you well in your next Pastoral relationship. Who knows what God has in store for you? I only know I trust the giver of the gifts.

Yes, rejoice in the gifts which were given, and now journey on to embrace the gifts that will fill your future, with your new Pastor. Your Pastor – departing – rejoices in the gifts which you shared. Your temporary Pastor urges you to take your past and find your future.

I pray every blessing of God upon you. In your new time.

It is your future. It is God's future for you.

Go with God.

3 I thank my God every time I remember you, 4 constantly praying with joy in every one of my prayers for all of you,
Philippians 1

And Thank You

And thank you to everyone who brought together Sunday the 11th. The morning. The worship. The Lunch. And thank you all for the significant gift for my retirement.

Pastor Dave

The voice of God

A message from David's wife

I wanted to tell you all how much you have meant to me during the retirement service and the time after but I couldn't. I was going to burst out in tears and end up unable to speak. So, I'll take this time to cry in private as I send you this message.

Your love and care of David was so astounding and comforting for me. During all the trials that we were going through at home, I always knew that he was being cared for in your arms. His well-being was one less thing that I needed to worry about, he was with you all. I have no idea how to express my gratitude to you for your care of David.

Being his wife, I have always known the gifts which he could bring to a church. Many churches chose to ignore the gifts and continue following their path. The strength of your church family allowed him to share his gifts. You made his last church be his best church. You were an amazing gift to me because I knew that David was enjoying your company and talents so much during his time with you. His communications with me were always filled with the wonderful things that were happening at church. When he announced his plan to retire to me, one of my reactions was, why would you leave these people!

Let me express my boundless thanks to you all for your cards and good wishes to me and my father. Dad was so surprised at your outpouring of love and thoughtfulness toward him. His subdued "farm" response was, "Well, isn't that something", which, in translation was, "Wow, this is wonderful". You opened your arms and wrapped them around him with your cards to him. The children's Holy Week book was so nice. He read it over and over. He has never seen such expression of love from a church before.

So, I hope you can see how special are to me. Your cards and letters were timed so that they came at just the right moments to be comforting to me even when no one else knew that I needed comfort. You might not have seen it or heard God saying, "Jane needs a note right now" but you allowed your life to be used by God even in ways that you might perceive as small. They were not small to me.

For this, I thank you for being the voice of God to me.

With the love of God, Jane

Bluffton Community Preschool Begins to Set Up Space

If you have been in the nursery or library recently, you've seen quite a few boxes and children's equipment. The scene will continue to evolve during July and August as Bluffton Preschool prepares to begin its school year on August 28.

The nursery will continue to be used as a nursery during Sunday services, but during the week it will be utilized as a classroom for 3-year-olds from 8:00 AM to 3:00 PM. The BCP school year is the same as the public school year. The library, (formerly the green room) will continue to be available weekends for Sunday school and meetings, but on weekdays it will be used as a classroom for 4-year-olds.

Last year BCP enrolled approximately 75 students, but because there are four sessions, there are no more than 21 children at school at any one time. BCP has been operating for 45 years as a public charity and pays $400 a month for the use of the space.

Having the preschool in our church is part of the New Beginnings effort which seeks to reach out to and serve the community. We are hopeful that as a result of this program many new opportunities for service will be available to us.

Session has appointed three Elders – Tenna Rhonemus, Lori Schmidt, and Dick McGarrity to coordinate the transition of BCP to our church. They will be happy to answer any questions you may have.

Watch for more updates.

Deacons Report from June Meeting

It's Community Meal Time!

It's Bluffton Presbyterian's turn to host the Community Meal on Thursday, July 20, at the Senior Center. The deacons are organizing a great picnic-themed meal and will be there to prepare the meal, meet, greet, and serve, but more help is needed!

How can you participate in this all-church effort?

- 1. BAKE A PIE - This is our biggest need right now. Thirteen pies are needed to feed the estimated 100 guests.
- 2. ADD YOUR NAME to the list of cheerful workers. People are needed to help serve the meal, act as "runners," clean up, and take care of any number of small tasks.
- 3. DONATE FUNDS to help cover the cost of food and all necessary supplies. A basket for monetary donations is on the table in the narthex. Or you may donate by check. (Please write 7/20 Community Meal on the memo line.)

Sign-up sheets for both pies and volunteers will be in the back of the church.

THANK YOU for your support of this worthwhile Bluffton ministry!

Mission

- The Relay is over and was a success. The rain kept some people away and we could not do the big bounce houses, but thanks to Sara and Ryan who brought small ones the kids loved. We broke record on pie auction, the silent auction and chair went well too. Thanks to all who attended and helped. It is a year-long project, but so worth the work to help fight the fight against cancer.
- The Manse remodel is in full swing, giving the manse a much needed remodel. We have work days scheduled and if you happen to have any carpentry skills to donate it would be appreciated, as well as cleaning and outside work. You can contact Lynda Best 419-296-2790 if questions.

Ignite - merging fellowship, families, and service

The Outdoor Community Movie Was Great!

The rain stopped, a double rainbow was seen in the sky, and about 75 people gathered on the church lawn to see the movie "Sing" on the evening of June 16. A big thank you to Ted's Market of Pandora for the use of its movie equipment, including a giant screen that we draped over the side of the building. Thank you, too, to Lynda and Kim Best for letting us use their fabulous popcorn maker. It lent the perfect touch and was kept popping most of the evening! A good time was had by all, and we appreciate all the support!

Clair Winebar - The popcorn master

A nice crowd enjoyed "Sing"!

Plenty of kids were on hand. These are eagerly waiting for the movie to begin.

Prayers of Sympathy with Betsey Angus and family on the recent loss of Bob.

Prayers for our members and friends serving in the armed forces: especially Kyle Begg, Austin Begg, Dave Souders, Andrew Warner, and Lucas Woodward.

We Lift Our Prayers

Put a prayer request in – take a prayer request out.

Look for prayer request slips in the pews and near the prayer box. Or use your own paper. Requests can be as simple as “I’m having back pain,” or “My son is looking for a job.” The slips can be placed in the box or in the offering plates. Prayer requests can be submitted anonymously.

Allow someone in your church family to support you in private prayer.

BPC Prayer Chain

If you have a prayer request, please contact Mike Rhonemus (419-358-8148 / rhonstar@juno.com), or call the church office (419-358-5806) with your prayer request, and they will pass along the information.

If you would like to add someone to the prayer chain other than yourself, please be sure to get their permission first. Names and circumstances can be kept confidential, if desired. God knows for whom we pray. If you would like to be part of the chain or would like more information, please contact Mike or another deacon.

Thank You!!!

*****

I want to thank all my church family for the prayers and help Bob and I received during his health problems. They worked. Even the doctors said they did. I had many more weeks with him. It meant so much to me. Our family commented on what good support I have! Pastor Dave was really there for me. Extra thanks to Helen, Terry, Dwight, and Darlene for animal and lawn help. Jodi, Don, Helen, Darlene, and Cathy for my mental and physical support.

The funeral dinner was great and the service was the best. Thanks Don, Jayne, and Linda for pulling Hallelujah off with such short notice. He would have loved it. Church friends are the best!

Thanks,~Betsey~

*****

Thank you to all those who prepared food and helped host the Family Promise meal at St. Mary's! The families seemed very appreciative of the meal and fellowship. Our next opportunity to host will be at Emmanuel UCC the last week of September. More details will be shared as we get closer to the date.
