Pastor's Letter: More Change?

The only constant in life is change, said the Greek philosopher Heraclitus. This seems true of most times, especially as we have adjusted and adapted for the past 15 months to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Some changes are good: more people are now protected from COVID-19, which means fewer people are getting seriously sick and dying from the virus than a year ago. Some changes are confusing: protocols are being added or eliminated sometimes overnight, and they do not all apply equally to everyone. Some changes are bad: our country is experiencing increased hate crimes against Asian Americans and Jewish Americans.

We cannot avoid change. We can, however, enact changes of our own – to enhance the good ones we've observed, to clarifying the confusing ones, and to resist the bad ones.

We also cannot predict the future. However, we can make choices that we believe will benefit our families, our communities, and our world. (Thy kingdom come...) We can do our part to prevent others from getting sick. We can spend time with those who are lonely or grieving. We can share our resources with the church to support its ministries, or with individuals or other organizations with whom we feel a strong sense of connection or compassion.

If we try to avoid change in life, we will never be successful for long. If we can learn to accept – even to embrace – change, we will be able to meet new challenges and circumstances with openness and courage, rather than with fear and anger.

As Christians, we do not just read the Bible as a book of ancient texts; we seek meaning from Scripture for our own lives. The gift of the Holy Spirit was not finished at Pentecost – the gift continues for each of us today. In John 3, Jesus says to Nicodemus, "The wind blows where it chooses, and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit." Our faith will change us – and with the Spirit's guidance, we will change the world – for good.

In Christ,

Pastor Karol

Praying Like Jesus: The Lord's Prayer Sermon & Discussion Series

Pastor Karol is currently offering a sermon series on the Lord's Prayer. An accompanying time of discussion will take on Sunday afternoons from 1:30-2:30 PM, in the church gazebo or fellowship hall. Both series will run through June 20.

Worship by Phone Discontinued

Due to low participation and continued technical difficulties, Bluffton Presbyterian Church will discontinue the Zoom call-in for morning worship for now. You may still receive the printed service information by mail or a DVD recording of weekly worship by request if you do not attend in person or join on Facebook.

Invitation to At-Home Worshippers

Would you like to participate in worship from home? How about recording a video greeting or a personal testimony? We want to involve our online and homebound participants in more integral ways. If interested, please reach out to Pastor Karol or any member of the worship committee to make arrangements.

Invitation to Membership

If you have recently found a home here at Bluffton Presbyterian Church, you are invited to consider joining our congregation. Talk to Pastor Karol or any member of session (see back page) to find out more. Educational opportunities can be offered for you to become more familiar with our church's history, mission, and more. The primary profession of faith for members is this: to proclaim Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior. We are eager to welcome you as a vital and active member of our Christian fellowship.

Your Values –

The Opportunity of Estate Planning

As we know, regardless of the size of one's assets, it is each person's responsibility to have an estate plan for the sake of families and loved ones. Fortunately, this "chore" also represents our best opportunity to ensure that our resources are used consistently with our values and passions, namely: our family and loved ones, church, and other causes that move us.

As a service available to all of us, the Presbyterian Foundation provides resources that explain the estate planning process and options in non-technical language. The resources are presented in a manner to help ensure that your plans best reflect your values and the best interests of your family and loved ones, regardless of whether that includes a current or future gift to the church.

As a good starting point (or a handy reminder and overview of estate planning options for those who've thought about this, but not taken action), the Stewardship and Finance Committee recommends reading through the Presbyterian Foundation's "Composing a Legacy – A Guide to Charitable Estate Planning" brochure, available at the URL below, or printed in the church office. You may also speak with any committee member, who would be glad to assist you in finding additional resources. Committee members include Craig Bowman, Barb Fett, Dick McGarrity, George Stultz, Julia Szabo, Clair Winebar, and Pastor Karol.

Psalms 71 testifies that a foundation of faith established during childhood helps ensure lifelong faith and service. The patterns and lessons established during these formative years continue to bear fruit throughout a person's life. By participating in the Pentecost Offering, you are nurturing the faith of those who are the church to come – children, youth, and young adults.

Kirkmont Center, an independent non-profit organization founded by the Presbyterian Church USA in 1963, has been selected to receive 40% of this year's Pentecost offering to make an impact in the lives of young people in our community. Kirkmont – "church on the mountain" – is located in Logan County near Bellefontaine, OH and their goal is to provide a renewing camp, outdoor education, or retreat experience. The Center is holding a HOME Campaign to raise $10,000 to support operations and make improvements; visit their Facebook page to learn more about the success of the Campaign.

The remaining 60% is used to support ministries of the Presbyterian Mission Agency in these ways:

Gifts may be made by check in the offering plate, mailed to the church or by giving online <https://www.blufftonpc.org/give.html> now through May 31.

3 Cents A Meal Offering

Three Cents a Meal invites every member of our congregation to prayerfully contribute a few cents at each meal to help alleviate hunger and poverty. Daily participation is a reminder of the reality of hunger for millions of our sisters and brothers in the world. As the money accumulates, those participating become aware that small, regular acts can result in significant responses to hunger and that there is great strength in working together with other Christians. We collect this offering on the first Sunday of each month. The funds collected are distributed to the Bluffton Community Assistance Food Pantry and the Presbyterian Hunger Program.
